Matthew Sterling Grundy is a believer, builder, and visionary.

Formerly homeless, Matthew is from Southern California. He received a Bachelor's Degree in business administration, with an emphasis in entrepreneurial studies, from the University of Southern California.

Matthew, his wife Jocelyn and their six children delight in seeing the goodness of God's kingdom realized in every facet of life. As an author, speaker, leadership coach and advisor, Matthew is called to help people and organizations navigate their purpose in life.

Grundy served as Deputy Mayor of the City of Fresno under the Dyer Administration. He worked to help steward the City's "One Fresno" Vision. Before his work in public service, Matthew was the CEO for Habitat for Humanity Greater Fresno Area. Nationally, Matthew has helped lead strategic visioning for 1,200 Habitat operations across the US. Matthew's leadership has led to the expansion of building homes and hope with families across two counties and four countries.

Prior to his non-profit role at Habitat, Matthew worked as an organizational consultant, developer, and President of a national for-profit supplemental educational services company that focused on turning around failing public schools. His efforts helped improve K-12 academic outcomes for 250,000 low-income students across 16 states within 1,000 schools.

Matthew believes that all of his accomplishments are solely due to the loving grace of Jesus Christ, his Savior.

LIFT UP THE WORD - LIGHT UP THE WORLD

For you are my lamp, O Lord, and my God lightens my darkness. For by You I can run against a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall. This God - His way is perfect; the word of the Lord proves true; He is a shield for all those who take refuge in Him.

2 Samuel 22:29-31
